MID-TERM DEFICIENCY SLIPS DUE TOMORROW!

Dean Archibald has asked that all faculty members be sure to return their Mid-Term Deficiency slips to the Registrar's Office by 4:30 Tuesday, November 4. This will assist their office greatly in getting these slips in the mail on Wednesday.

MODULE PROGRESS REPORT

"Buildings A and B were set into place last Friday", said our Business Manager, Vern Farnell, "and the construction crew is back at work this morning on building C.....it should be in place by noon today." Target date for the big move is November 26.

UNITED APPEAL

Every staff member will be contacted soon about the United Appeal campaign.....naturally we want to be 100% at LBCC! There will be a representative from the Administration, the Faculty and the Classified departments coordinating the participation of their individual employee groups. There is no limit to your individual contributions.....you may give as much or as little as you are able. (To ease the pain, your United Appeal contribution may be set up as a payroll deduction and "spread out"!) Do keep in mind the efficiency of "One Gift Giving" that supports dozens of local, state and national agencies.

CLASSIFIED STAFF...REMEMBER TOMORROW.....

You have a business meeting scheduled for 5:00 p.m.!! (It's in the conference room.)

OSU - WASHINGTON GAME, SATURDAY ..... GET YOUR TICKETS NOW!

Bob Miller has General Admission tickets available for our staff at the Student Center for $1.00. It's OSU's Homecoming...game time is 1:30 at Parker Stadium.

TICKET APPLICATIONS are also being taken for the Mason-Williams Concert at OSU on November 15th. Check with Bob at the Student Center.

VETERAN'S DAY FLOAT

If you'd like to help construct LBCC's float for the Veteran's Day Parade, contact the chairman, Dick Swartzendruber.....or get the details from Bob Miller!

PHI BETA LAMBDA MEETING

Tomorrow - 12:00 noon in room 200. Mr. Walter Gaul of Remington Co. in Salem will demonstrate the Electronic Calculator. (The meeting is open to all interested individuals.)

PRETTY NEW FACES

If you haven't met Mrs. Barbara Dixon in the Adult Education Department yet...walk up and introduce yourself! She's coordinating the Homemaking areas with emphasis on the sewing classes. Barbara hails from Corvallis and has followed her graduation from OSU with a wide area of teaching and working in the field of Home Economics.

Miss Judy Plank is the new Machine Operator in Data Processing. Working previously for Vancouver Plywood, Judy is new to Albany, but lived in Lebanon for six years..... a native Californian. She says she spends "all her spare time in the Programming Class".....her boss is Phil Clark, Mr. "Data" himself.

PARACHUTE REGIMENT TATOO....TICKETS FREE!!

Wednesday, November 12, 8:00 p.m. at Gill Collesium! Pick up your free tickets at the Office of Student Activities for this Corvallis Music Association-sponsored concert.

TRAVEL TALK

Joseph Leger, Director LRC, and Yvonne Lee, Librarian, attended the fall conference of Oregon Community College Librarians at Blue Mountain Community College October 17 & 18.

Joe reported that BMCC was just in the process of moving into the new building which houses Administration, Learning Resources, Forum, and Faculty Offices. "One of the features is a well-developed learning laboratory." Speakers at the session included Dr. Wallace W. McCrea, president of BMCC and journalist and editor, J.W. Forrester, former State Board head.

WHAT COMES TO MIND WHEN YOU HEAR THESE FIGURES: "36 - 22 - 36" ?

Just for the fun of it, here are some possible answers:

Mr. Siebler: "That's an isosceles triangle!"

Mr. Farnell: "Some people never do put down their complete Social Security number!!"

Dr. Schafer: "What kind of a poker hand is that?"

Dean Archibald: "Is that a new class code?"

Mr. Jordan: "You finally found me a new secretary!"

Dean Adams: "Those were our golf scores the last time I challenged Dr. Schafer and Ski on the local 3-par!"

BOOKSTORE NOTES

HELP! (By ordering your texts for winter term classes as soon as possible!)
Remember the "Roadrunner" sweatshirts are on sale in lots of sizes.
