A NOTE FROM DR. NEEDHAM

Thank you for the warm LBCC welcome! In addition to just saying "hello", I'd like to extend a personal invitation to each of you to feel free to drop by my office and get acquainted. It's a genuine pleasure to be part of the LBCC team, and, as you can imagine, I'll be relying on each of you for support and assistance while I'm getting acquainted with the college and the community. Again, thank you for making me feel at home at LBCC.

FROM THE BUSINESS OFFICE: Please look at the ceiling occasionally. This is an efficient method of spotting a drip or two, should they develop. (Remember, report any deficiencies in the building you may discover to Dixie so they can be corrected.)

THE COUNSELING CENTER will be open for testing Tuesday and Wednesday evenings between 7 and 9:30 p.m. However, scores are given out only on Wednesday evenings, as that's when a counselor is on duty.

DIVISION CHAIRMEN will be meeting every Thursday from noon until 1 p.m. in the Board Room. It's a sack lunch occasion....remember to bring your own!

"GEORGE M." is playing in Portland October 20th thru the 27th. Information is available at Stevens & Son.

"ALL THE KING'S MEN", Wednesday, October 21, 2 p.m. and 7 p.m. in the College Center.

BOB STRAUB, Democratic candidate for Governor of Oregon, will speak at the Student Center on Friday, October 23, at 2 p.m.

STUDENT ELECTIONS will be in full swing Tuesday and Wednesday.

OSU CONCERT Friday, October 23 - Jethro Tull, Gill Coliseum, 8 p.m.

ALL ABOUT US ----- Sandy Affolter shot a bob cat last weekend. Watch out, Mr. Jordan! Ski leaves Thursday to bag a big bull...or little bull, as the case may be.

Barbara Dixon flew to Salem for lunch Thursday! Talk about exotic appointments!
