

THE LINN-BENTON COMMUNITY COLLEGE

COMMUNITER

VOL. 51 EDITION 6

NOV. 6, 2019

MACKS ATTACK!

PHOTO: KATIE LITTLEFIELD

Portland-based rock-and-roll band The Macks perform Oct. 31 at Interzone's annual Halloween cover show. See page 6.

JUST DESSERTS!

THE LINN-BENTON
COMMUNITY COLLEGE

COMMUTER

The Commuter is the weekly student-run newspaper for LBCC, financed by student fees and advertising. Opinions expressed in The Commuter do not necessarily reflect those of the LBCC administration, faculty and students of LBCC. Editorials, columns, letters, and cartoons reflect the opinions of the authors.

LBCC is an equal opportunity educator and employer.

Letters Welcome

The Commuter encourages readers to use its "Opinion" pages to express their views on campus, community, regional and national issues. The Commuter attempts to print all submissions received, but reserves the right to edit for grammar, length, libel, privacy concerns and taste. Opinions expressed by letter submitters do not represent the views of the Commuter staff or the College. Deliver letters to:

Address:

The Commuter
Forum 222
6500 Pacific Blvd. SW
Albany, OR 97321

Web Address:

LbCommuter.com

Phone:

541-917-4451, 4452 or 4449

Email:

commuter@linnbenton.edu

Twitter

@LBCommuter

Facebook

The Commuter

Instagram

@LBCommuter

Our Staff

Adviser

Rob Priewe

Editor-in-Chief

Caleb Barber

Layout Designer

Rebecca Fewless

A&E

Steven Pryor

Photography

Davis Ihde- Editor
Jakob Jones

Web Master

Marci Sischo

Advertising

Vicki Ballestero

Sports

Cam Hanson

Contributors

Travis Peterson
Bowen Orcutt
Angela Scott
Isaiah Haqq
Ahn Washburn
Kenneth Wilson
Allen Tan
Danny Thompson
Georgia Ry Dunn-Hartman
Arianna Stahlbaum
Mckenna Christmas
Krystal Urrutia
Samantha Adams
Sabrina Parsons
Bryant Bautista

STORY BY

LISA HOOGESTEGER

HOOGESL@LINNBENTON.EDU

You're probably aware that "stressed" spelled backwards is "desserts." So appropriate right after Halloween.

I'm fascinated by stress. We all have it. We all cope. We all fail at some level. Stress in and of itself isn't bad. If you want to email me your answers to the questions above, I'll share them anonymously. We can all learn something from each other. There are many great, healthy ways to cope with stress.

I work with the Active Minds club on campus (changing the conversation about mental health and promoting positive emotional well-being.) One of our campaigns is "Stress Less. Laugh More." Not that one solution fits everything. Have you tried to purposefully catastrophize something until it's so bad it's redonkulous and you can't help but laugh? Do you feel better after watching a silly, stupid movie? Can your cat or dog make you laugh even when you're trying not to? (Fenway, four-legged advisor, points out that dogs and cats don't really do stress. A little anxiety maybe when their bowl is empty or a visiting cat, dog, squirrel or mouse comes over. But mostly, says Fen, live in the moment. And nap when you can. And always be excited when your two-legger comes home to play.)

ASK YOURSELF:

Answer these questions to yourself, or even better with a friend or family member.

- What's your "go to" move to cope with stress? (short term immediate stress)
- When/how did you learn this coping mechanism? (in your family?)
- How would you rate your ability to deal/cope with stress over the course of a 10-week term of classes? (1-10, bad to good).
- If you could change one thing to cause you less stress, what is it?

MORE QUOTES ON THE SUBJECT OF STRESS:

Said Yoda, "An ignorant state stress is. An emergency it believes everything is."

"It's not stress that kills us, it is our reaction to it." -Hans Selye

"Working hard for something we don't care about is called stress. Working hard for something we love is called passion." Hmmm, what about school?

"Be the energy you want to attract." Surround yourself with people who bring you up. Limit time with those who bring you down.

"You can do anything, but not everything." Dang it.

CAMPUS VOICE

If you had one minute to tell the world anything you wanted, what would it be?

JOHANNA COOK

"BE KIND. IT'S WAY EASIER THAN BEING A JERK."

TAYLOR SCHULTZ

"ALWAYS REMEMBER, IT'S OKAY TO FAIL. SOMETIMES, IN THE LONG RUN, IT'S BETTER THAN SUCCEEDING."

DANIELLA MARTINEZ

"LIFE'S TOO SHORT TO BE DOING SOMETHING YOU DON'T WANT TO BE DOING, SO JUST DO WHATEVER YOU HAVE TO IN ORDER TO ACHIEVE THAT HAPPINESS."

EMILIANO ALARCON

"JUST HAVE FUN, AND IF YOU WANT SOMETHING, GO GET IT. DON'T GIVE UP EVEN IF IT'S HARD."

BERENICE GONZALES

"LIFE IS HARD, BUT GOD IS GOOD."

STORY AND PHOTOS: SABRINA PARSONS

SLC UPDATE

Food Security, and a Visit to the Capitol

STORY BY KAREN CANAN

SLC Update: Halloween, Food Security, Capitol Visit and Affordable Housing, plus another opportunity to pay for some of your schooling by serving on the SLC

On Thursday, Batman, Mario and a little vampire carved pumpkins on the quad. The pumpkin-carving activity for students and staff continued throughout the day and was sponsored by the Student Leadership Committee (SLC). The SLC office, which is located on the first floor of the Forum facing the quad, buzzed with the energy of sunshine and activity.

In the SLC office, a primary topic of discussion is food security for LBCC students. Food security is

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

For more information about any of these events and opportunities, stop in the SLC or email SLC President Patricia Simon at slcpres@linnbenton.edu defined as “the state of having reliable access to a sufficient quantity of affordable, nutritious food.” The SLC helps with student food security with both the LB lunchbox program and Thanksgiving boxes as well as advocating for Oregon students in the legislative priorities they vote on as members of the Oregon Student Association.

SLC Volunteer Coordinator Andrew

Middleton said that the SLC will be “revamping” their questionnaire for students who come in to pick up an “LB lunchbox,” which is a box of nonperishable food. The new questionnaire will help assess what other needs LBCC students may have.

On Wednesday November 20 from 2-5:30 pm the student government reps will be traveling to Salem for a tour of the capitol and legislative briefing from an Oregon legislator. This replaces their weekly Wednesday meeting, which on other Wednesdays is held 3-5 pm in CC-211.

For students interested in politics and local issues, the SLC offers opportunities for involvement. The SLC is accepting applications for a second Legislative Affairs Coordinator, which allows the selected student to earn 3 credits of tuition per term in exchange for their work as an SLC rep.

INTERNATIONAL STUDENT FAIR

The international student fair on Oct. 29 was an event for international students to come talk to universities all around the country. It was a chance for the students to learn more about transferring to a four year university of their choice.

Robert Yu learns more about Arizona State thanks to the International Student Fair on Oct. 29. He was also very interested in Oregon State University for their business program.

PHOTO: KATIE LITTLEFIELD

Rino Tanahara and Mizuki Kitagawa are very excited to learn more about the different universities around the country at the International Student Fair. They both took a liking to the University of Portland and plan to go to school for business and accounting, but there’s so many options in Universities that they’re still undecided.

Olivia Zhang and Julia Han were on the hunt for a business university and they were very interested in Portland University for their business program.

Korinius Kogoya took an interest in the Oregon Ducks for their film program. He’s slowly warming up to LBCC since this is only his first term here, but he is excited to see what’s to come.

Adornments of skulls and flowers filled Forum 220 as Disney-Pixar's "Coco" played on the projector overhead.

DÍA DE LOS MUERTOS

Sugar Skulls and Sweet Bread on LBCC's Day of the Dead

STORY AND PHOTOS BY
MCKENNA CHRISTMAS

A reunion of a loved one is always a refreshing release. In Mexican culture, Dia de Los Muertos welcomes back the spirits of lost loved ones with personal gifts while also celebrating their life here on Earth from October 31st to November 2nd.

From sugar skulls to traditional pan de Muertos (dead bread) LBCC carried out Dia de Los Muertos right here on LBCC's main campus last Thursday and Friday from noon to 2:00 pm. Put on by the students in Forum 220 (previously known as the Diversity Achievement Center), the festivities began with hot chocolate and a Mexican bread traditionally eaten during the Day of the Dead celebration. Also known as pan de muerto or "bread of the dead", the toasted exterior represents the bones of the human body while the center represents the heart. Using marigold flower petals as a pathway for our ancestors to guide them to the altar that is filled with offerings for them, LBCC welcomed students to put photos of their own lost relatives on the altar designed by LBCC students.

"You get together with the family to paint sugar skulls, and put it on the offering table," Brayán Zavala said as he went into detail about how his family celebrates Dia de los Muertos. "The altar has a lot of significance. You put stacks of bread, oranges, food, anything the dead like. We also put drinks on the altar like soda, beer, and tequila. Then we set up a lot of candles and sugar skulls."

Students enjoyed some pan de muerto during the festivities. This "bread of the dead" is a sweet and fluffy pastry served specifically during the Days of the Dead.

Flooded with colors and candles, people also added hand-painted sugar skulls to the altar. The sugar skulls are traditionally used to decorate a person's grave to welcome the return of a deceased friend or family member. This year at LBCC, these sugar skulls were molded by Korina Rayburn and Catherine Stevens using powdered granulated sugar, meringue powder, and water.

After the fifth successful year of LBCC putting on Dia De Los Muertos, Forum 220 pushes students to recognize other cultures by also putting on events that are tributed to black history month and gay pride month. By hosting these events that highlight diversity, Brayan Zavala helps set up ornaments around Forum 220 and shares why Dia de los Muertos is such a culturally significant holiday.

Forum 220 hopes to spread compassion to create an open environment for everyone.

Forum 220 is also a place to step into for help, direction, or to "just take a nap on the couches," Zavala said. It's always welcome to anyone looking for help with friendly faces just on the other side of the glass doors.

Guests decorated and painted their own sugar skulls while enjoying a delicious sweet treat.

First Alternative NATURAL FOODS CO-OP

Student Produce Tuesday

Every Tuesday at the Co-op, show your LBCC student ID and get 15% OFF all produce!

Discount applies to students of any Oregon college

North Corvallis: 29th & Grant
South Corvallis: 1007 SE 3rd St.

@firstaltcoop

www.firstalt.coop Open daily 7am-10pm

CAMPUS LIFE

PHOTO: SABRINA PARSONS

Alex Bear and Max Turner listen dutifully to their campaign members as they take their turns through the game.

PHOTO: SABRINA PARSONS

Forrest Millard adds plus two to his roll with his power of wisdom.

PHOTO: SABRINA PARSONS

To play Dungeons and Dragons, you'll need several types of dice, your own character sheet, and any other necessities to make yourself comfortable. Luckily, LBCC's Table-Top Gaming Club can supply you with all the pieces for gameplay!

PHOTO: JAKOB JONES

Sarah Whiteside sets up some decor with the newly opened Roast Runners. Whiteside says she wanted to start adding some decor to make the place feel more alive and that the new shipment of furniture should really set the ambiance for the cafe.

PHOTO: JAKOB JONES

These ladies are just a few of your 2019 Fall Semester Baristas at the newly remodeled Roast Runners. Manager Alyssa Wood (center) says "although the place is open and we are so excited that it finally is, we know it is going to be so cool once all the furniture arrives in a few weeks. We encourage everyone to stop by and see the new set up!" Paige Haussmann-Noel (left) and Megan Price (right) are new to the Roast Runner family but are really excited to learn the ropes and be a part of the coffee family.

PHOTO: JAKOB JONES

Paige Haussmann-Noel, a barista at the newly remodeled Roast Runners, prepares to make coffee for a student. Haussmann-Noel started with the Roast Runners just a few weeks ago but already knows her go-to beverage. The most popular drinks that have been ordered are hot cocoa and any type of latte.

Thanksgiving Food Drive

LBCC is currently collecting non perishable food items and money (checks may be made payable to AAWCC) until November 21st. Food and money collected will go to help students and staff in need this Thanksgiving season. All food/money needs to be delivered to Printing and Mailing Services no later than 4pm on Thursday, November 21st.

Questions? Call Tammi ext 4818 or Jeanine ext 4236.

Please consider donating to this very worthwhile cause.

If you or someone you know* needs a food basket this Holiday season please visit: <http://bit.ly/LBCC-ThanksgivingFoodDrive> and fill out the online form.

You can also access this form by clicking the QR code below.

ITEMS NEEDED:

- Corn and Green Beans • Gravy Mixes • Stuffing • Cake Mixes
- Frosting • Graham Cracker Crusts • Pudding • Shortening
- Canned Milk • Canned Pumpkin Pie Mix • Yams
- Marshmallows • Cranberry Sauce • Jello • Bisquick

*Note: Current employees and/or currently enrolled students at LBCC are eligible to receive a food box.

THE MACKS!

Portland-based rock-and-roll band The Macks performed Oct. 31 at Interzone's annual Halloween cover show. The Macks were dressed as the English rock band T. Rex and covered their most popular songs. Other bands that were featured included Flexing as Joy Division, Sadgasm as Good Charlotte, Shaene as The Cars, and The Shifts as Smashing Pumpkins.

STORY AND PHOTOS: KATIE LITTLEFIELD

The Macks frontman Sam Fulwiler brings the energy to each of their live performances and never fails to get the crowd jumping to their music. The Macks are set to debut their new album "YUP" on Nov. 6 on Spotify.

Bailey Sauls brings the groove to this live show at the Interzone.

Lead guitarist Ben Windheim continues to impress brother and bandmate Joe Windheim on the drums. Windheim broke a string during the first song of their set and had to switch guitars to keep going strong. The first guitar couldn't handle his shreds!

PHOTOS: Arianna Stahlbaum

Street tacos topped with pico de gallo. Students work throughout the morning and during the restaurant's lunch hours to prepare fresh meals for hungry Roadrunners.

WHAT'S COOKING AT THE COMMONS

A Showcase of the Edible Masterpieces Created by LBCC Culinary Arts Students

Mini red velvet cake topped with an edible rose. What drew Katie Marks to culinary was her grandmother, who owned several restaurants, and her father, who cooked at many different restaurants.

Three-tiered red velvet cake with an edible rose decor. Katie Marks enjoyed decorating the cake with the chocolate-covered cherries and roses, but had trouble with, "assembling the tiers because the frosting is very soft, so it almost fell apart."

Swiss Steak topped with tomato and chives. Barry Thomson enjoyed making the steak, explaining that, "you have to sear them all off, and searing, it's nice when it comes off clean. If you try to flip it too early, you'll yank the sear off, and if you flip it too late, you burn it. If you get the sear just right, it's a nice golden brown."

Pumpkin flan with a tempered chocolate spider and web. First year, Kylie Anderson enjoyed creating the decorative web, but "you have to be very careful to make it look right." Anderson enjoys the competitive aspect of the program. "Only a certain amount of people make it to next year, so we're all just fighting to get there."

Cream cheese danish. Students practice precision and presentation to show their skills and hopefully move them forward in the competition for a spot in the program next year.

* CAFETERIA *

11/6 to 11/12

Wednesday 11/6: Milk Braised Pork*, Teriyaki Chicken w/Steamed Rice*, Thai Tofu Yellow Curry w/Steamed Rice*. Soups: Pazole*, Vegetable*. Salads: Larb (Thai Chicken), Roasted Cauliflower Larb.

Thursday 11/7: Shrimp Scampi w/Pasta, Pork Chop w/Sage Butter, Beet Puree & Swiss Chard*, Eggplant Parmesan. Soups: Navy Bean & Ham*, Five-Spiced Coconut Carrot*. Salads: Smoked Salmon Caesar, Vegetarian Caesar w/Avocado.

Monday 11/11:

~ Campus Closed for Veterans Day~.

Tuesday 11/12: Classic Eggs Benedict, Grilled Steak w/Chimichurri*, Spinach Ricotta Lasagna Rolls. Soups: Loaded Baked Potato Chowder, Tomato & Cannellini Bean*. Salads: Pesto Grilled Chicken Caprese, Grilled Portobello Caprese.

Monday to Friday Lunch - 11:15 AM - 1:15 PM

* Gluten Free

DEATHLY DECOR

The Best of LBCC'S Halloween Room Decorating Contest

PHOTOS: JAKOB JONES

Healthcare App Support features a dark and gloomy corpse bride theme.

The Academic Affairs office decorated as a "Guided Pathways of Horror": a satirical opposite of what a student should do in order to graduate.

The HR front desk covered in cobwebs, candy, and pumpkins.

The Student Development team sports a Dr. Seuss Zoo theme.

A queen-themed Halloween, Freddie Mercury and a Halloqueen invite guests to the NSH forum, where students guess and make up song names for Queen albums based on the art exhibits.

A Warm, Red Autumn

Friday, November 8, 12:00 P.M. - 1:00 P.M.
Benton Center Atrium

A seasonal reading of poetry and prose in celebration of the changing of the season. Scheduled readers include international students, community leaders, LBCC staff, and a surprise guest.

ROGUE ROUGHS UP LBCC

LBCC Volleyball Goes 1-1 on the Week, Keeps Eyes Focused on Finishing Out Strong

STORY AND PHOTO BY
CAM HANSON

Roadrunner volleyball's streak of winning was once again halted, and by the same foe, the Rogue Community College Ospreys. After another 3-0 set sweep against the SW Oregon Lakers, the Roadrunners ran into the same wall they did before in Rogue and fell 3-1 overall, dropping their record to 24-10 on the season with a 10-3 record overall in conference. The loss to Rouge hurts due to it being a division loss, but the Ospreys are one of the best teams in the NWAC and were fuming after a huge loss to the Lane Titans, who sit right behind them in the division standings. After the loss, LBCC still holds a strong lead in third and has a three game advantage over the fourth Mt. Hood St. Bernards, clinching the playoffs. With the playoffs clinched and the season winding down, LBCC looks to hone in on their final three games and find success.

Linn-Benton started the month on a strong note, facing the SW Oregon Lakers (18-17 overall, 4-10 division) and dismantling them three sets to none. The set scores at the end of the three-set match were 25-18, 25-19, and finally 25-15. While the defense wasn't as strong as they showed against Umpqua, they undoubtedly performed at a high level and shut down the Lakers from even scratching the twenties in kills. Leaders on offense included Ally Tow, who is ending her sophomore regular season at the same pace she started, finishing with 16 kills on a .414 kill percentage. Taylor Tedrow led the team in kills with 18, at a percentage of .593. Sydney Johnson continued carrying the load of assists with 38 total, but Lauren Whitty also contributed to the totals with 11. The strong win increased the Roadrunners set sweep streak to five games, but was cut short just one day later in Coos Bay at Rogue Community College.

The Roadrunners traveled to Rogue and played the Ospreys in a strong battle of the top teams in the south, yet the result remained the same. Rest assured, LBCC did not go down easy, falling in four sets but staying competitive with final set scores of 35-33, 25-23, 25-18, and finally 25-15. While Linn-Benton remained in the game at the start, Rouge steadily broke them down set by set. Some players that had a great game were Ally Tow and Mitra Alfatooni. The two continue to attack on offense all season, and put up 20 and 14 kills respectively. The loss stings for LBCC, but with playoffs clinched, its merely for playoff seeding and bragging rights.

Roadrunners stomped Umpqua on October 23 before being upset by Rogue Community College.

With only three games left against Clackamas, Mt. Hood, and Lane, the Roadrunners have a very good chance to round off the season 2-1, with wins against the eighth and fourth teams in the division. Lane will be a tough task to face, especially after they thwarted the Ospreys, but LBCC is 1-1 against them on the season and could easily boost that record. No matter what, the Roadrunners have clinched their birth in the playoffs, and can begin formulating their shot at redemption from last years early exit.

VOLLEYBALL SCOREBOARD
WEDNESDAY NOV. 6 @ 6:30 p.m.
Linn-Benton (24-10, 10-3) ★	VS
Clackamas (12-22, 4-10)
WEDNESDAY NOV. 6 @ 6:30 p.m.
Lane (21-8, 12-1) ★	VS
Chemeketa (12-23, 5-8)
WEDNESDAY NOV. 6 @ 6:30 p.m.
Umpqua (18-16, 4-9) ★	VS
SW Oregon (16-16, 3-11)
★ = Home Team

OSU TAKES ON TEAM USA

OSU Holds Their Own Against International Champs

Team USA 2019-2020 is made up of some of the top athletes in the WNBA today. At last night's game against the OSU Beavers, Team USA showed just what they are made of and solidified why they are the best of the best. (From right to left) A'ja Wilson (Las Vegas Aces), Alisha Gray (Dallas Wings), Naphessa Collier (Minnesota Lynx), Skylar Diggins-Smith (Dallas Wings), Layshia Clarendon (Connecticut Sun), Chelsea Gray (Los Angeles Sparks).

OSU Guard Destiny Slocum takes on USA Center Sylvia Fowes as she drives to the basket. Slocum contributed 15 points to the teams overall 58 points and kept team USA on their feet last night at Gill Coliseum. "It was an honor to play against some of the best in the nation." Slocum said at yesterday's press conference.

PHOTOS: SAMANTHA ADAMS

OSU's Aleah Goodman takes on team USA guard at the three point line, contributing to the overall OSU total of 58 points. OSU had their first loss of the 2019 season against team USA at last exhibition game ending with a 81-58 victory for Team USA. Goodman finished the game strong with an incredible 14 points and was a lead scorer for the Beavers along with Destiny Slocum.

OSU VS UNION

OSU's Guard Aleah Goodman brings the ball down court against Union at last week's exhibition game. Goodman finished the game with three triples to end with nine points, contributing to the overall victory of 95-41 against the bulldogs

OSU forward Janessa Thropay drives to the basket finishing with an impressive layup against the Union Bulldogs. Thropay contributed to the Beavers overall 52% shooting average from the floor and defensively held Union to a 23.4 shooting percentage from the floor.

PHOTOS: SAMANTHA ADAMS

OSU Women's Basketball team relaxes with some smiles at last week's game against the Union Bulldogs. With a 95-41 victory, the Beavers continuously cheered on teammates which resulted in a 66-32 rebound advantage in the fourth quarter alone and a 54 point victory.

Guard Mikayla Pivek drives to the basket on a breakaway with four Union defenders alongside her. Pivek was a large contribution to her team's victory at last week's game and named 2019 WBCA All-America Honorable Mention. Pivek is a Senior at OSU this year and plans on making it back to the Final Four in hopes for an overall victory.

Senior Mikayla Pivek sets up for her free throws at last week's game against the Union Bulldogs. Scoring six points in the first 10 minutes of the first quarter, Pivek, just shy of a double-double, finished the game strong with 14 points and nine rebounds.

Linn-Benton
Community College

International Programs
Department of Institutional Equity, Diversity & Inclusion

THEY CALL ME

AN EMOTIONALLY CHARGED COMEDY
13 CHARACTERS. 1 HOUR. 1 ACTRESS.

NOV 20
12:00 P.M
FORUM104

FEATURED BY BROADWAY.COM
WRITTEN AND PERFORMED BY QURRAT ANN KADWANI

LBC INTERNATIONAL PROGRAMS

PHOTO COMPETITION

Post your Travel photos on your Instagram and tag @LBCCGLOBAL

THE TOP TWO POSTS WITH THE MOST LIKES WIN THE AMAZING GIFTS FROM GLOBAL CONNECTION CLUB

DEADLINE:- NOV. 15, 2019

LBC STUDENTS, STAFF, FACULTY CAN PARTICIPATE

WINNERS WILL BE ANNOUNCED TO KICK OFF INTERNATIONAL EDUCATION WEEK NOV 18, 2019

MOVIE REVIEW:
Terminator: Dark Fate

STARRING: Arnold Schwarzenegger, Linda Hamilton, Mackenzie Davis, Gabriel Luna and Natalia Reyes
DIRECTOR: Tim Miller (Based on Characters created by James Cameron and Gale Anne Hurd)
GENRE: Action, Adventure, Sci-Fi
RATED: R
OVERALL RATING: ★★★★★

STORY BY STEVEN PRYOR
@STEVENPRR2PRYOR

"Terminator: Dark Fate" is the latest film in the "Terminator" franchise, and the sixth film overall. While not the best entry in the series, it is a marked improvement over some of the previous installments and the closest in style and tone to the original 1984 entry and the smash hit 1991 sequel "Terminator 2: Judgment Day."

Twenty-three years have passed since the prevention of Judgment Day in 1997. Now, in the near future of 2020; an aged Sarah Connor (Linda Hamilton) must form a reluctant alliance with an cybernetically-enhanced soldier named Grace (Mackenzie Davis) and an older T101 under the alias "Carl" (Arnold Schwarzenegger) to prevent a young woman named Dani (Natalia Reyes) from being killed by an experimental Terminator prototype known as a REV-9 (Gabriel Luna). Over the course of 128 minutes, director Tim Miller ("Deadpool") returns the series to its darker roots with the help of producer James Cameron, who also co-wrote the script alongside David S. Goyer ("The Dark Knight Saga," "Man of Steel") and Billy Ray (TV's "Earth 2").

On a massive budget of $185 million, Miller shows off a flurry of creative action scenes while putting a unique spin on the franchise's most memorable moments. Without spoiling anything, the film opens on a shocking swerve from the original timeline and doesn't let up from there. While 2009's "Terminator Salvation" and 2015's "Terminator Genesis" were often criticized for nullifying the impact of the story by keeping the content at a PG-13 rating, this film is gloriously hard-R in the vein of the first two films. From an opening clash with the REV-9 in a Mexico City factory to a climactic final battle in a hydroelectric dam; the series has ended up with some of its best moments in years.

That said, the film definitely isn't perfect. Not every moment in the film has the same impact as its seniors, even when it's rife with references and Easter eggs from the series' 35-year history. Though the film's special effects are largely fantastic throughout, the opening prologue has obvious CGI to de-age the lead actors to their 1998 selves; giving off an "uncanny valley" effect that's quite jarring when the film also intercuts the opening vanity plates with archival footage from Sarah's interview "T2."

Still, the film is easily the best entry in the series since the first two films. By only making the first two entries canon and writing off other follow-ups as taking place in alternate timelines; the film is able to offer a new perspective that was sorely lacking from many previous installments. Tom "Junkie XL" Holkenborg also has a great soundtrack to help back the film's most dramatic moments.

Though not quite reaching the heights of its groundbreaking seniors, "Terminator: Dark Fate" is a vast improvement over previous "Terminator" sequels. While it remains to be seen what lies ahead, the film further proves the central theme first spoken in the original 1984 film: "the future is not written, there is no fate but what we make for ourselves."

CROSSWORD PUZZLE

ACROSS

- 1 Post
- 5 Eyelashes
- 10 Rom. Furies
- 11 Astringent
- 12 Farewell (2 words)
- 13 Unassuming
- 15 E. Indian tanning tree
- 16 Scheme
- 18 Modernist
- 19 Civil War commander
- 20 With joy
- 21 Bluish-white metal
- 22 Ant
- 24 Hundred (pref.)
- 25 Rear
- 26 Council for Econ. Advisors (abbr.)
- 27 Soap plant
- 30 Wine vessel
- 34 Dear (Ital.)
- 35 Song (Ger.)
- 36 Federal

- Aviation Admin. (abbr.)
- 37 Russ. community farm
- 38 Unadulterated
- 39 Fever (pref.)
- 40 Heavenly
- 42 Roam
- 44 Heath evergreen
- 45 "Fra Diavolo" composer
- 46 Silk substitute
- 47 Ogle

- DOWN
- 1 Swed. sculptor
 - 2 Venezuelan copper center
 - 3 John, Gaelic
 - 4 Shin (2 words)
 - 5 Stick used in hurling
 - 6 Sacred image
 - 7 Went first

ANSWER TO PREVIOUS PUZZLE

P	L	A	T	A	E	T	C	S	P	A
H	E	R	O	D	A	A	R	L	A	D
A	N	I	T	O	N	N	E	U	L	A
G	A	L	E	N	A	T	U	R	G	I	D
					I	M	P	O	S	E
E	D	E	S	I	E	A	D	A	G	E
M	Y	R	I	A	L	P	D	U	E	L
S	E	G	N	O	M	A	L	S	T	A
			S	T	R	A	B	O
M	Y	O	P	I	A	A	V	A	L	O	N
A	A	A	T	Y	E	I	D	O	L	A
A	L	S	I	O	N	N	A	D	I	R
M	E	T	S	N	A	G	R	E	G	E

- 8 Peaceful
- 9 Off
- 10 Jap. news agency
- 12 Oceanic tunicate
- 14 S.A. toucan
- 17 Recline
- 20 Small flute
- 21 Ardor
- 23 Prayer beads
- 24 Principal
- 26 Axis deer
- 27 Top
- 28 First
- 29 Planetarium
- 30 Circuit (abbr.)
- 31 Once (2 words)
- 32 Pole in Gaelic games
- 33 Male noble
- 35 Rom. poet
- 38 _____ Rivera, CA
- 39 Gooseberry
- 41 Nothing
- 43 Herb of grace

		1	2	3	4		5	6	7	8	9
		10					11
12							13					14
15					16	17				18
19				20					21
22			23					24
			25				26
27	28	29			30					31	32	33
34				35						36
37				38					39
40			41				42	43
	44						45
	46						47

NETFLIX RECOMMENDATION

"Devilman Crybaby"
 This latest take on Go Nagai's "Devilman" series is a modern classic masterwork of devilishly dark social commentary, and a fantastic anime in its own right.

BY STEVEN PRYOR

SUDOKU

Complete the grid so each row, column, and 3x3 box (in bold borders) contains every digit.

	8	7		5		3
5				8	7			2
	6			7				4
3				9	6
	9						1
		6	3					9
9			8					2
6	8	5						7
	3		2			5	8

Humans of Our Community

Eddie Hernandez

Eddie Hernandez has worked at Beggs Tire and Wheel in Albany for the last two years, but has been in the industry for over 20, working at Les Schwab and South Pacific Auto Sales. He is an Assistant Manager and the lead mechanic for the shop. What are his favorite parts of the job?

"Helping out those that are less fortunate than us, being able to give back to the community with great service, compassion, and understanding."

PHOTO AND STORY BY MEGAN CARROLL

Pam McQueary

Pam McQueary is a behavior specialist for the Albany School District. She works specifically with elementary-age kids. Pam and her team make specialized education plans for students at her building and other elementary schools in Albany. This could include a more structured schedule to supervised recess to blow off steam.

PHOTO AND STORY BY AHNI WASHBURN

Kim Schulte

Kim Schulte displays her booth of handmade hats and shirts for all sizes on the corner of Highway 20 and 53rd Street in Corvallis four days a week. Kim and her husband Davis Schulte have been designing and producing knitted decorative hats and shirts for over nine years. Starting out with just creative hats for their daughter, Schulte has turned a fortune from creative thinking. With hats made from acrylic and wool, they embrace their full-time job by setting out a booth year-round with seasonal treats as well.

PHOTO AND STORY BY MCKENNA CHRISTMAS

Julian Sanchez

Julian Sanchez owns a bike shop at 1619 Main Street in Philomath. Julian is a fun, easy-going guy who will tell you the best trails around to ride on. If your bike needs to be repaired or if you're looking to start biking as a hobby, he's the guy to go to. He always adjusts the bikes specific to each person to ensure that you are doing the least amount of work while riding your bike. In his free time he likes to ride his motorcycle and take photos of landscapes. He went to school for photography for a while, but he wouldn't trade his shop for anything.

PHOTO AND STORY BY KATIE LITTLEFIELD

