Statement on the Syllabus's Importance:

Get to know this syllabus! It is vital that you have an understanding of all of the assignment dates that are coming this quarter. This document is your lifeline to passing this course.

Course Description and Prerequisite: WR 122: Argumentation emphasizes the logical means of supporting claims in argumentative essays, thesis statements, and reasoning. Includes logic, style, and research. Prerequisite: WR 121 English Composition or equivalent with a grade of 'C' or better.

Course Overview:

Despite the title, this class is not meant to be a place of contention. We are here to debate, question, explore and discover more about our abilities to present a point of view and to deliver that point of view from an academic standpoint. There can be distinct approaches and styles that we will examine together, but they are meant to be tools, not rules.

We, as the bearers of opinion, feeling and fact, have the gift of expanding upon how we tell others how we see the world. By gaining a better understanding of argumentative writing you will be empowered with the ability to craft well-informed essays, but more importantly, will learn more about your own system of logic.

Let us be perfectly clear: all opinions, within academic reason, are welcome to flow from your mind here in the form of essays, workshops, and in-class participation. We will address each other with respect and dignity, giving classmates ample time to express themselves and gradually perfecting the art of critical listening.

As we get to know each other in the class, be sure to focus on communication - especially with your instructor. If you have any special needs or are having a tough time, just let me know.

Online Updates: Since this class will be entirely online, your participation is vital to your ability to succeed in this course. There will be checklists for every weekly Unit and the three major Parts of this class - but in the end, the work will be your responsibility.

This can be tough when faced with the distractions of home, so I strongly recommend that you find a special time/place in which to do your work: maybe away from your Playstation, in a van out in the driveway, wherever you can be productive while practicing social distancing.

- Student Learning Outcomes: Students who complete WR 122 will be able to:
1. Analyze the rhetorical needs (the needs of your audience in relationship to the assignment) for college-level persuasive writing assignments.
 2. Apply appropriate levels of critical thinking strategies (knowledge, comprehension, application, analysis, synthesis, evaluation) in your written assignments, with emphasis on analysis and evaluation/persuasion.
 3. Implement appropriate rhetorical elements and organization (introduction, thesis, development and support, counter-argument, conclusion, etc.) in our written assignments, with an emphasis on standard argument models, particularly the Toulmin model.
 4. Locate, evaluate, and integrate high-quality information and opinion appropriate for college-level analysis and argument assignments.
 5. Craft sentences and paragraphs that communicate your ideas clearly and effectively using words, sentence patterns, and writing conventions at a high college level to make your writing clear, credible, and persuasive.

Course Materials:

We will be using various essays throughout the quarter from this free online supplement: 88

Class Work:

Lectures - Every week there will be mandatory slides and corresponding audio that you are required to observe and take notes on. Just click on the audio file and follow along with the slides, kind of a like one of those books on tape that you may have had as a kid. Reading - You are expected to keep track of the weekly chapters as we read them in this class and to take active, thorough notes in your study time. We'll be going over terminology and concepts that will require your involvement and comprehension of the material.

Weekly Exercises - These will often reflect and extend upon the concepts in the reading, with 88 Open Essays and other texts. Exercises will include in-class writing, workshop notes and quizzes.

Exams - There will be one Final that you will get the week of finals to be turned in during the final exam class.

Peer Reviews - There will be at least two peer reviews that students will write for each other, with a partner that you will be assigned to. You are expected to actively read, critique and edit the work of a fellow student, giving feedback that will enhance their work. Please remember to give respectful feedback, and if you're stuck on an editing issue, please ask the author or myself to clarify. This is a requirement in order to pass this class!

Major Papers and their Subsequent Revisions -

There will be three major papers that you'll write in this class that will cover the fundamental principles of academic writing for the argument. You will be provided with criteria for each of these assignments as the quarter progresses. Please take a look at the class schedule on this syllabus and make a note of the due dates for these assignments. Your ability to get these in on time and within the assigned criteria will greatly determine the outcome for your final grade:

- 1.) Critical Paper One: Rhetorical Breakdown: 2-3 pages in length
- 2.) Critical Paper Two: Rhetorical Analysis: 3-4 pages in length
- 3.) Critical Paper Three: Comparative Stances: 5-6 pages in length

*Revisions: with each Critical Paper, you will have the option to turn in one revision draft as a chance to improve your grade, which you will turn in at a date that we both agree upon. You must let me know via email if you're planning on doing a revision of a Critical Paper.

Papers will be turned in via a Google Doc that is assigned to you and shared with you for the term. I encourage you to compose your papers on a separate doc, then when you're ready to submit, copy/paste it into your Google Doc.

Important Course Policies and Campus Resources:

(Use this section as a kind of “everything else” list of things that students should know about, both course-specific and campus-wide. Below I’ve listed some of the things I use on my syllabi, but please adapt yours accordingly. Note that the Center for Accessibility Resources and Non-Discrimination Policy sections are REQUIRED; please use the exact language here for both of those sections.)

- No-Show Policy: Unless prior arrangements have been made with me, registered students not attending the first two class sessions will be withdrawn.
- Attendance Policy: Missing class means missing valuable instruction time, which means that you give yourself the best chance to do well by attending every class on time and in its entirety. The grading breakdown above indicates how many absences are permitted for final grades of A, B, and C. There is no distinction between an excused absence and an unexcused one. If you do miss a class, you should contact me or a trusted classmate to find out what you missed. Likewise, if you miss a class when an assignment is due, you will need to contact me to make arrangements for getting me the work. If you are absent for an in-class activity that is collected for grading, it cannot be made up.
- Punctuality Policy: Plan to arrive to class on time and stay for the entire period. If you arrive more than 5 minutes late, you will be marked late. More than 3 lates will equal one absence.
- Withdrawing from the Course: Typically the Friday that concludes Week 7 is the last day for students to withdraw from a course; check the academic calendar for this term to confirm that date. If you are still enrolled after this point, you must receive a grade. Be aware that withdrawing from a course can impact your financial aid, so be sure to consult with the Financial Aid Office if you have questions before withdrawing.

- Phones in the Classroom: Please silence your phone and put it in your pocket or bag. Think of it as a test. Can you go 80 minutes without touching it or looking at it? If there is a legitimate need to have your phone out, please talk to me before doing so.
- Laptops/Tablets in the Classroom: I prefer that students do not use these devices in the classroom unless we're in the computer lab, but if you'd like to, please talk to me before doing so.
- Policy on Late Work: Policies for late work will be included with assignment instructions.
- Plagiarism and Academic Integrity: Presenting someone else's ideas in writing as if they are your own is plagiarism, and it is a serious academic offense. Any plagiarized elements in your writing will result in, at minimum, a zero for the assignment and, at maximum, automatic course failure. If you ever borrow information from an outside source to put in an essay, you must cite it properly. If you're not sure how to do this, please ask me for help before submitting your paper. Once you submit a paper, the policy mentioned above will be enforced.
- Moodle: Important course materials—such as assignment instructions, class agendas, and your midterm and final grades—will be posted on our course site on Moodle. An easy way to get to Moodle is to start at the LBCC homepage, and then click on the yellow Moodle logo at the top right. Alternatively, you can go directly to the sign-in screen. If you've never logged-in to Moodle before, you will first have to claim your account at <https://identity.linnbenton.edu/>. - The LBCC Writing Center: The LBCC Writing Center (WH-200) is a fantastic free resource for students. As explained above, you will be required to visit the WC to earn a grade of A or B in this class. Get more info about the WC here: <http://www.linnbenton.edu/learning-center/writing-center>
- The LBCC Library: The LBCC library is located on the first floor of Willamette Hall. Get more information here: <http://library.linnbenton.edu/home>

- Center for Accessibility Resources (CFAR): LBCC is committed to inclusiveness and equal access to higher education. - Non-Discrimination Policy: Everyone in the LBCC community has the right to think, learn, and work together in an environment of respect, tolerance, and goodwill, and we will honor that right in our classroom.
- Public Safety/Campus Security: In an emergency, call 911. Also, call LBCC Campus Security/Public Safety at 541-926-6855 and 541-917-4440.
