Course Description

This course introduces students to various aspects of the communication process in one-to-one relationships. Emphasis is placed on enhancing personal and professional relationships by expanding knowledge, increasing understanding, and developing practical skills necessary for competent communication.

Learning Outcomes

Successful completion of this course will require achievement of the following:

- Through the Course Examination and the Feature Film Critics' Corner, you will identify terms, theories, and key functional areas of interpersonal communication.
- Through the Ethics Exercises, you will demonstrate awareness of how your worldview guides ethical choices. You will also analyze, select, and enact appropriate interpersonal communication behaviors based on the interpretation of the context of each exercise.
- Through Zoom Lectures and the Feature Film Critics' Corner, you will develop and demonstrate an understanding of meta-communication theory, interpersonal communication skills, and identification of important choice points in communication. Additionally, you will demonstrate improved communication competence.
- Through the Theory Or Model Journal, you will apply interpersonal communication research and theory while demonstrating sufficient critical reading and writing to summarize peer-reviewed research.

Institutional Policies

Academic Honesty

The presentation of another individual's work as one's own or the act of seeking unfair academic advantage through cheating, plagiarism or other dishonest means are violations of the College's "Students Rights and Responsibilities." Students caught cheating will receive a grade of "F."

Students with Disabilities

You should meet with your instructor during the first week of class if:

- you have a documented disability and need accommodations,
- your instructor needs to know medical information about you, or
- you need special arrangements in the event of an emergency.

If you have documented your disability, remember that you must make your request for accommodations through the Center for Accessibility Resources Online Services web page every term in order to receive accommodations. If you believe you may need accommodations, but are not yet registered with CFAR, please go to <http://linnbenton.edu/cfar> for steps on how to apply for services or call 541.917.4789.

Values

Our values serve as the foundation that inspires our actions and unites us as a community. As responsible stewards, we are committed to:

- Opportunity: We support the fulfillment of potential in ourselves and each other.
- Excellence: We aspire to the highest ideal with honesty and integrity.
- Inclusiveness: We honor and embrace the uniqueness of every individual, and promote the free and civil expression of ideas, perspectives and cultures.
- Learning: We commit to the lifelong pursuit of knowledge, skills, and abilities to improve our lives and our communities.
- Engagement: We openly and actively connect as students, faculty, staff and community.

Prerequisites

College level reading (RD 90) and writing skills (WR 121) are strongly recommended for success in this course.

Course Policies

This course is an online class. This means that you must regularly login to Moodle. The traditional aspects of the course revolve around reading, assignments, activities, discussions, and participation. The activities and discussions will highlight the reading materials, elaborate on assignments, and prepare you for the Course Examination.

This course is designed to develop your understanding of, and ability to use, interpersonal communication skills, based on this the format is one that is impossible to attain a passing grade without a consistent demonstration of organization, efficiency, and promptness. In other words, you must participate in activities and forums, do the reading, and complete assignments in accordance with the prescribed schedule.

Time does not allow for makeup assignments. No makeup tests, activities, or assignments will be scheduled. If an emergency does occur preventing submission of an assignment and/or the time you had to complete the work was consumed by complete interference that was genuinely beyond your control (e.g. serious and debilitating illness), contact me as soon as possible to discuss negotiation of an adjusted deadline.

The best way to get a passing grade for this course is to view six feature films, submit six analyses, participate in six discussions, collaborate in six group critiques, complete the multipart examination, and maintain a journal. This coursework will all be graded. In addition to completing the aforementioned assignments, you are expected to regularly access and participate in the course's Moodle community.

The best way to get in touch with me is email. On Mondays through Fridays, I tend to check email at least once a day, and I guarantee I will not let forty-eight hours pass without checking and responding to email messages. The best way to make sure that your email message receives the prompt attention it deserves is to use the email function within the course's Moodle shell. Moodle tends to experience fewer difficulties with my linnbenton.edu address than other systems do. If you must use another email account, please use your Linn-Benton account. Please put COMM218 in the subject line of your email. That will ensure I do not lose your email in the flood of other messages I receive. A third option, and least preferred, is to use some other account. If you must resort to this, in addition to including COMM218 in the title, be sure to include the name you are registered in this course under. This will ensure I do not lose or overlook your email message.

Course Assignments

The following are brief descriptions of all graded assignments. Each assignment has more detailed instructions posted in Moodle.

1) Course Examination

There is one Course Examination. It is broken up into four Exam Parts. Each Exam Part contains twenty questions, and covers the syllabus or chapters from the textbook plus any supplements explicitly identified with assigned chapters. You may use the book. You may use any notes you have taken. You may not use any other human being as a resource as you complete Exam Parts. Consulting another person, whether a classmate or not, constitutes cheating.

2) Feature Film Critics' Corner (this assignment has four different parts with four different due dates)

- Viewing - You will be assigned a group. Your group will be assigned a motion picture to view. Watch the assigned motion picture (via streaming, Blue Ray, DVD, VHS, or library) by the first due date.
- Analysis – Answer all of the discussion questions related to your assigned movie. Upload completed answers to group's forum by second due date. Your upload should be the start of a new discussion thread in your group's forum (i.e. click Add a new discussion topic).
- Discussion – Read all group members' analysis and comment on their answer to at least one of the discussion questions. Start your comment by clicking Reply at the bottom of their analysis by the third due date. Do not start a new topic. As you notice comments appearing for your analysis respond as open and honest as possible with your agreements, explanations, or follow up questions.
- Group Critique - When everyone has responded to a comment or question from all of their teammates, start a new topic with a brief (creative) synopsis of the movie and reworked, group agreed on, answers to the (same) discussion questions answered for your Analysis by the fourth due date.

3) Moodle Access (at least twice weekly)

In order to get the most out of an online course you need to regularly be online. To keep abreast of what is happening in our course community access Moodle a minimum of twice a week. Check announcements, review the syllabus, read course messages, read/view/listen to enrichments, and keep an eye on discussions and forums. Not only will these activities make the course easier and more enjoyable, but they will also help you build a strong final grade.

4) Moodle Participation (at least once a week)

Posting an assignment, taking a test, participating in a discussion or forum, starting a discussion - doing just about anything within our course community, at least once a week, will help time to fly and your grade to grow.

5) Theory Or Model Journal (1 document containing 5 entries, 1 – 3 double spaced pages each entry with 12 point font)

Type one entry per page that reflects upon theories and/or models you encounter over the term. Your writing should be a snapshot of your understanding of concepts and their application to “real” life. Each entry should be a minimum of four paragraphs long. The first paragraph of each entry should clearly identify and explain the theory or model that is the entry's focus. The second paragraph should describe an interaction or situation from your life that is a good example of the theory or model. The third paragraph should explain how the theory or model helps or hinders the described interaction or situation. The fourth paragraph should express how you feel about the theory or model, especially in regards to your life. You should choose at least five theories and/or models to share your thoughts about, yielding a minimum of five log entries.

Responsibilities: Yours And Mine

This is adapted from an article an English professor wrote, under a pen name, which appeared in the June 9, 2006 Chronicle of Higher Education.

Students are not customers. Teachers are not employees. Students and teachers have obligations to each other.

What I expect from you:	What you can expect from me:
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • You will treat everyone in the class, including me, with the respect due to all human beings. • You will attend every class, give your full attention to the material, and conduct yourself in an appropriate manner. • You will agree to do the work outlined in the syllabus on time. • You will acknowledge that previous academic preparation (e.g., writing skills) will affect your performance in this course. • You will acknowledge that your perception of effort, by itself, is not enough to justify a distinguished grade. • You will not plagiarize or otherwise steal the work of others. • You will not make excuses for your failure to do what you ought. • You will accept the consequences -- good and bad -- of your actions 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • I will treat you with the respect due to all human beings. • I will know your name and treat you as an individual. • I will not discriminate against you on the basis of your identity or your well-informed viewpoints. • I will manage the class in a professional manner. That may include educating you in appropriate behavior. • I will prepare carefully for every class. • I will teach only in areas of my professional expertise. If I do not know something, I will say so. • I will conduct scholarly research and publication with the aim of making myself a more informed teacher. • I will pursue the maximum punishment for plagiarism, cheating, and other violations of academic integrity. • I will keep careful records of your attendance, performance, and progress. • I will maintain confidentiality concerning your performance. • I will be honest with you. • Your grade will reflect the quality of your work and nothing else. • I am interested in your feedback about the class, but I am more interested in what you learned than how you feel.
