Employ teamwork practices applicable to the industrial workplace. Demonstrate respectful cooperation and communication with others in a teamwork setting. Recognize the potential benefits of working as a team. Demonstrate the ability to work within a group to accomplish a collective common goal.

Behavior and Expectations

The instructor is expected to teach and you are expected to learn. In order to prepare you for your working career, we expect you to conduct yourself as you would at a job.

- Be on time and ready to learn.
- Be respectful to EVERYONE in the shop or classroom.
- Follow all safety rules. No exceptions. You will be given lots of safety rules to follow, if you are not understanding the rule, ask for more information.

You are held accountable to the Student Code of Conduct, which outlines expectations pertaining to academic honesty (including cheating and plagiarism), classroom conduct, and general conduct.

Guidelines for communication

Email works best for communication in regards to class. Use CRN in subject line.

Attendance/Tardiness Policy

This is a 6 week course and you need to log into Moodle at least once per week. I will use this as a base line for attendance.

Assignments

Since we will be doing all of our learning online this term, all assignments will be turned in through either Moodle or email or a combination of the two.

This class is here to help you build teamwork skills and learn to with others.

I will release one assignment per week, with some of the assignments lasting two weeks.

These assignments will be a combination of individual work and also working in groups. Groups will be assign week 2.

College Policies

LBCC Email and Course Communications

You are responsible for all communications sent via Moodle and to your LBCC email account. You are required to use your LBCC provided email account for all email communications at the College. You may access your LBCC student email account through Student Email and your Moodle account through Moodle.

Disability and Access Statement

Use one of three approved syllabus statements located on the Center for Accessibility Resources Faculty Resources webpage.

Statement of Inclusion

To promote academic excellence and learning environments that encourage multiple perspectives and the free exchange of ideas, all courses at LBCC will provide students the opportunity to interact with values, opinions, and/or beliefs different than their own in safe, positive and nurturing learning environments. LBCC is committed to producing culturally literate individuals capable of interacting, collaborating and problem-solving in an ever-changing community and diverse workforce.

Title IX Reporting Policy

If you or another student are the victim of any form of sexual misconduct (including dating/domestic violence, stalking, sexual harassment), or any form of gender discrimination, LBCC can assist you. You can report a violation of our sexual misconduct policy directly to our Title IX Coordinator. You may also report the issue to a faculty member, who is required to notify the Coordinator, or you may make an appointment to speak confidentially to our Advising and Career Center by calling 541-917-4780.

Public Safety/Campus Security/Emergency Resources:

From any LBCC phone, you may alternatively dial extension 411 or 4440. LBCC has a public safety app available for free. We encourage people to download it to their cell phones. Public Safety also is the home for LBCC's Lost & Found. They provide escorts for safety when needed. Visit them to learn more.

Changes to the Syllabus

I reserve the right to change the contents of this syllabus due to unforeseen circumstances. You will be given notice of relevant changes in class, through a Moodle Announcement, or through LBCC e-mail.
