ALL-STAFF MEETING THURSDAY AT 4 P.M.

Classified staff, faculty and administration are asked to participate in a general LBCC staff meeting in room B-5 on Thursday afternoon at 4 p.m. The main subject of discussion will be the April 13 budget election.

SLIDES AT 12:30 TODAY - "A Very Special Place", the slide production in use by the counseling staff to acquaint high school students with their community college, will be shown continuously in the studio at the LRC between 12:30 and 1:30 today. Bring your sack lunch and laugh at each other as caught by the candid camera! Seriously, it will help acquaint you with "what else" is going on at LBCC.

 $\overline{\text{AAJC CONFERENCE NEXT WEEK}}$  - Dr. Needham will be in Washington DC next week attending the AAJC Conference.

LEGISLATORS TO VISIT LBCC SUNDAY - The Ways and Means Committee will be touring LBCC Sunday!

VOICE TRYOUTS! LBCC is conducting our own "talent search" for a male voice suitable for broadcasting. If you think you have "the voice" - those golden tones so pleasing to the ear, please contact Peg T. or Jay G. We'll cut a tape!

CONGRATULATIONS, PHI BETA LAMBDA MEMBERS! - At the State Convention held last Friday and Saturday at TVCC in Ontario, LBCC representatives cut a wide swath! Ethel Crane was elected Sec., Allison Broadwater, Treas., and Ed Kelly, Historian. Making the parliamentary team were: Dan Sorensen, John Nitcher, and Ed Kelly with Allison Broadwater an alternate. In contests, Dan Sorensen took first in the extemporary speaking category, Vicky McWhirter took first in vocabulary, and Brenda Hartman placed second in "Miss Future Business Executive" competition. Great going!
