Course-Specific Requirements

Repertoire: Repertoire will be selected throughout musical history and may include: secular, sacred, western classical, folk, non-western, jazz, pop, musical theater, and more. Keep an open mind. We will be performing a variety of music of different genres and in different languages.

Memorization: Music for all performances is expected to be memorized, unless traditional historical performance practice dictates otherwise. The more memorized a piece of music is, the more musical we can make it!

Course Description

Concert choir is a traditional choral performance class that includes the singing of a wide range of choral music from around the world. Participation in final concert is required. This ensemble is open to all members of the college community. Audition for vocal placement with the instructor. Each level of this course can be repeated up to three times for credit.

Student Learning Outcomes

1. Demonstrate attention to technical accuracy and expressive qualities in prepared performances of varied repertoire of music representing diverse cultures, styles, and genres appropriate for a first/second-year choir member.
2. Demonstrate an understanding of expressive intent by connecting with an audience through prepared performances appropriate for a first/second-year choir member.
3. Collaborate to produce rehearsals and performances of high musical achievement.
4. Demonstrate healthy vocal production technique as it relates to choral music by analyzing information from different perspectives and adapting to a variety of performance situations appropriate for a first/second-year choir member.
5. Apply personally and collaboratively developed criteria to evaluate the performance of artistic works appropriate for a first/second-year choir member.

Class Policies

Behavior and Expectations

Attend rehearsals on time with open ears, open throats, heart beating, breath moving, brain engaged and pencil in hand. We will begin the term in small group rehearsals using small mixed groups and sectionals. As we get into the term and we feel safer, we may expand to larger groups. Please check Slack on Sunday nights to find out when you will be needed for an in-person rehearsal. You should be on campus at least once or twice a week. If you are working remotely, we will zoom you into the rehearsal and you can sing muted with the choir.

If you are ill, please inform me prior to the rehearsal. Please contact me as soon as possible by phone or email if you must miss a rehearsal. We must rehearse as a group as much as possible in order to find our ensemble sound.

Skills to work on for optimum choral experience: punctuality, rehearsal decorum, developing singer's posture and breathing, healthy vocal production, intonation, listening, sight-reading, score preparation, counting rhythms, holding your part in 2, 3, 4-part harmony or more, diction, expression, MEMORIZATION, presentation.

Please respect each other's opinions and their journey in making music. Some people may have a lot of experience, others not so much. It is paramount that you see each other as equals in music making. Everyone brings something to the table.

If we need to go virtual, we will have rehearsals/check-ins. IF we have to do recordings for a virtual choir, show only your shoulders and head. Record in a way that only you can see/hear the guide track and the recording device can record only you. We do not want to hear the guide track on your recording.

Please ask for help if you need it. This is not something you should be worried or embarrassed about, it's all about improving. There will be times when you can help someone this year and there may be times when you need help. We are all here to improve and help one another without ego or any sense pretention. No one should feel lesser than or more than another in this choir. We each have things to offer the choir and are all needed in order to make this group something incredible. If you need help, confidently find it. If you can offer help, humbly share it.

If you are struggling, don't quit. Find someone to help and take steps forward. If the best you can do is to be barely comfortable on day one, then that's where you'll start. But, again, that's only if that's the best you can do. If the best you can do is to be very comfortable with everything, then get to that point. Give your best, always, and at every moment of rehearsal.

You are held accountable to the Student Code of Conduct, which outlines expectations pertaining to academic honesty (including cheating and plagiarism), classroom conduct, and general conduct.

Guidelines for communication

Please use email or Slack to get a hold of me.

Ensemble and Attendance Commitment/Responsibility:

Singing in an ensemble is like joining a team: your active presence at every rehearsal is of utmost importance to the success of the whole group. Please keep your commitments to the ensemble to share the responsibility for achieving our goal: singing beautiful and meaningful music for our various audiences with confidence and professionalism. Missing rehearsals/at-home practice may severely affect your overall grade!

Testing

Final Exam: TBD

Grading

Sight Reading (8 @ 10 points each) 80 points

The sight-reading examples are provided through Sight Reading Factory.

Rehearsal/At-Home Practice (~30 @ 3 points each) ~90 points

The weekly rehearsals/check-ins are either in-person rehearsals or performances of sections of your piece that are uploaded onto Soundtrap each week.

Concert Participation (possibly virtual choir performance) 200 points
Self-Evaluation 100 points

Final Grade Calculation:
