

Instructor Information and Availability:

Instructor: Jane Walker

Email: walkerja@linnbenton.edu

Office hours: By appointment or stay after class on Thursday. I am reasonably flexible.

Course Information:

CRN 27559

Class time: This course is a hybrid remote. We will meet face to face via Zoom every Thursday from 10-11:20 and be online the rest of the time. Attendance at the Thursday Zoom class is required.

Course Materials:

- Textbook: Charlotte Huck’s Children’s Literature: A Brief Guide, 3rd edition, Kiefer and Tyson, McGraw/Hill, 2019. Your text will be automatically uploaded into our Moodle shell (You do not need to order it through the bookstore website). The cost is $34.15. Some students still prefer having a hard copy of the textbook. We do have some copies on reserve in our library, but the check-out procedure is unclear at this time. I should have more information on that for you by the end of the first week. If you do get a hard copy from somewhere else, it is your responsibility to get into “Digital Course Materials (VitalSource) in our Moodle shell and decline the DDA textbook. The charges will then be deleted from your bill.

- Two chapter books:
  1. Pick one of the four books for your first chapter book (Weeks 1-5) This chapter book will also be the focus of your midterm exam. Charlotte’s Web by E.B. White OR The Wednesday Wars by Gary Schmidt OR The Giver by Lois Lowry OR Brown Girl Dreaming by Jacqueline Woodson. Before choosing your chapter book, you might want to get online to read descriptions and/or reviews of each book.
  2. You have two choices for the second chapter book (Weeks 6-10). Either you can just choose one of the books in #1 that you did not read for the first 5 weeks OR you can pick a Newbery Award winner from the last 20 years (Check out the link in Moodle for a list of Newbery winners). If you choose one of the books from #1, you will be able to order it from the bookstore.
  3. You can buy the books listed in #1 above from the bookstore, from online sources like Amazon, or simply check out your chapter books from a library. I have put some copies of Charlotte’s Web, The Wednesday Wars, and The Giver on reserve in the LBCC library. Our LBCC library also has the audio versions of Charlotte’s Web, The Giver, and Brown Girl Dreaming.

TECHNOLOGY: Make sure you have a Zoom account and that you use your LBCC email for all correspondence and Zoom sessions. You will find more detailed information and tutorials on this in Moodle. Please note: I am asking you to turn on your cameras during our Thursday session. Our class involves active learning and a fair amount of interaction with each other. It is best if we can see everyone. LBCC has computers (with video capability) that you can check out.

Important note: Succeeding in this class requires that you have college-level writing and reading skills (write at the WR121 level). If you have not yet taken WR121 (or aren't taking it this term), please contact me asap.

Course Description:

Welcome to our children's literature class! Prepare to immerse yourself in the world of children's books! I have a great passion for children's literature, and I am excited to share that with you this term. This class is appropriate for any student who has an interest in children's literature and is fulfilling general education requirements or for students who are or will be working with children in a professional setting. Hopefully you will end the term with a greater appreciation of children's literature as part of the mainstream of all great literature.

Student Learning Outcomes:

- Identify the key characteristics of varied genres in children's literature.
- Select, analyze, interpret, and evaluate children's literature.
- Analyze how visual elements in children's books enhance, tell, and/or impact the story.
- Articulate how children's literature reflects the human condition.

Required reading:

- Picture books (the number will vary from week to week). You are only allowed to use picture books from the lists I provide in Moodle, any book listed in our textbook, OR any picture book listed in our LBCC library.
- Two chapter books: Charlotte's Web OR The Giver OR The Wednesday Wars OR Brown Girl Dreaming in Weeks 1-5 and a second one in Weeks 6-10 (See more specific information on that on page 1 of the syllabus under "Course Materials").
- Chapters 1-8 and 10 in your textbook

Course Assignments:

- Reflection/response to Thursday class sessions: 100 (10 @ 10 pts each) Due by the following Sunday, 11:59 pm. No late reflections accepted after that.
- Chapter Key Points: 80 pts (8 @ 10 points each) Due on most Tuesdays (See Moodle and calendar in this syllabus for specific instructions and dates): Completing this assignment on time is key. Two "free" late key points assignments will be accepted, as long as they are not more than one week late. After that, you earn half credit.
- Forum Posts: 100 pts Due on most Tuesdays and Wednesdays (See Moodle and calendar in this syllabus for specific instructions and dates.) The number of forum posts for the entire term will vary and is not yet set.) No late forum posts are accepted.
- Weekly Writes: 350 pts (7 @ 50 pts each) Due dates will vary. Two "free" late weekly writes will be accepted, as long as they are not more than one week late. All other late weekly writes still earn half credit.
- Midterm (150 pts) Due Friday of Week 5 10% deduction if late
- Capstone Project (Annotated Bibliography): 220 pts Due Tuesday of finals week

Total points = 1000: A = 900-1000, B = 800-899, C = 700-799, D = 600-699

Resources:

Plan to stretch your understanding with each assignment. I will look for thoughtful content, logical organization, a clear style, and appropriate format. Here are some resources to help you:

- Jane: Email me early and often throughout the term with your questions and concerns. If you have a question, maybe there are others who do as well. Please feel free to ask questions often!
- Moodle: I have posted many excellent links in Moodle. Look for the folders at the top of the Moodle shell.
- YouTube has an amazingly large collection of videos of children's books. Try to find videos that display the entire pages of each book. BUT, see next bullet . . .
- Libraries: Real books are best! Some libraries are now checking out books again. LBCC will check out children's books to you as well as other local libraries. Any children's book listed in the LBCC library online catalog is acceptable. You could check out your books from our library or other local libraries.

"No book is really worth reading at the age of ten that is not equally (and often far more) worth reading at the age of fifty . . . the only imaginative works we ought to grow out of are those which it would be better not to have read at all." ----C.S. Lewis, "On Stories," in Essays presented to Charles Williams

Tips for Success in This Class/Behavior and Expectations:

- Be diligent about "showing up" every week to complete the activities and participate in the forums.
- Do your work on time. (enough said)
- Do your own work. You are held accountable to the Student Code of Conduct, which outlines expectations pertaining to academic honesty (including cheating and plagiarism), and "classroom" conduct in our Thursday sessions.
- This is a reading-intensive and writing-intensive course; you need to demonstrate that you are connecting textbook material and powerpoint material into your writings. I will be looking for thoughtful analysis, evaluation, and reflection in your writing this term. In other words, you need to move beyond simply summarizing a book.
- As stated above under "Resources" (and worth repeating again), please contact me if you encounter any difficulties at all. My teaching mantra is "I'm here to help."

*"It is not enough simply to teach children to read; we have to give them something worth reading. Something that will stretch their imaginations--something that will help them make sense of their own lives and encourage them to reach out toward people whose lives are quite different from their own." {Katherine Paterson, The Spying Heart, pp. 163-164}*

College Policies

LBCC Email and Course Communications

You are responsible for all communications sent via Moodle and to your LBCC email account. You are required to use your LBCC provided email account for all email communications at the college. You may access your LBCC student email account through Student Email and your Moodle account through Moodle.

Disability and Access Statement:

You should meet with your instructor during the first week if:

- You have a documented disability and need accommodations,
- Your instructor needs to know medical information about you, or
- You need special arrangements in the event of an emergency.

If you believe you may need accommodation services, please contact the Center for Accessibility Resources, 541-917-4789. If you have documented your disability, remember that you must make your request for accommodations through the Center for Accessibility Resources Online Services webpage every term in order to receive accommodations.

Statement of Inclusion:

To promote academic excellence and learning environments that encourage multiple perspectives and the free exchange of ideas, all course at LBCC will provide students the opportunity to interact with values, opinions, and/or beliefs different from their own in safe, positive, and nurturing environments. LBCC is committed to producing culturally literate individuals capable of interacting, collaborating, and problem solving in an ever-changing community and diverse workforce.

Title IX Reporting Policy:

If you or another student is the victim of any form of sexual misconduct (including dating/domestic violence, stalking, sexual harassment), or any form of gender discrimination, LBCC can assist you. You can report a violation of our sexual misconduct policy directly to our Title IX Coordinator. You may also report the issue to a faculty member, who is required to notify the Coordinator, or you may make an appointment to speak confidentially to our Advising and Career Center by calling 541-917-4780.

LBCC Comprehensive Statement of Nondiscrimination:

LBCC prohibits unlawful discrimination based on race, color, religion, ethnicity, use of native language, national origin, sex, sexual orientation, gender, gender identity, marital status, disability, veteran status, age, or any other status protected under applicable federal, state, or local laws. For further information, see Board Policy P1015 in our Board Policies and Administrative Rules. Title II, IX & Section 504: Scott Rolen, CC-108; Lynne Cox, T-107B, 541-917-4806, LBCC, Albany, Oregon. To report: linnbenton-advocate.symplicity.com/publicreport.

Basic Needs Statement:

Any student who has difficulty affording food or finding a safe and stable place to live, or who needs assistance with resources for transportation, childcare, etc., is urged to contact the Roadrunner Resource Center for support and referral to community resources. Also, please talk with your instructor if you are comfortable doing so. This can help them direct you to the appropriate office and resource.

(The Roadrunner Resource Center can be easily found by searching on the LBCC homepage.)

Changes to the syllabus

I reserve the right to change the contents of this syllabus due to unforeseen circumstances. You will be given notice of relevant changes in class, through a Moodle announcement, or through LBCC email.
