Course Description

The Write Course (WR 90) emphasizes the skills required for effective communication. We focus on the rules of the road for writing in English so that students learn to write with increased confidence.

Course Outcomes

- Write paragraphs that have a clear focus, good support, and a satisfying conclusion
- Use a variety of sentence structures effectively
- Edit for correctness in run-ons, fragments, commas, commonly confused words, and capitalization
- Use a word processing program to produce short papers in standard MLA college format
- Demonstrate an understanding of college culture and student success behaviors (Provisional)

Required Materials and Accounts

- ◆ WR 90 Course Materials Packet (<http://bookstore.linnbenton.edu/lbenton/default.asp>)
- ◆ The Quick and Dirty Handbook for Writers
- ◆ Three-ring binder for packet, graded homework, notes, handouts, and assignments
- ◆ LBCC Student Email Account (<http://www.linnbenton.edu/lbcc-email>)
- ◆ Go Print Account (<https://www.linnbenton.edu/student-printing>)
- ◆ One 10 ½" x 8" spiral notebook (no larger than 70 sheets) for journaling

Keys to Success

1. Attendance is important to your success: if possible, always come. Research shows that consistent attendance results in higher passing rates and higher GPAs. Class is an active time where everyone participates in doing the work of learning. Put simply: your learning depends upon your participation in class activities and completing the homework assignments. Weekly Workshops: Attendance is required in order to receive credit for workshops. You may miss one workshop and still receive full credit by completing the workshop in the College Skills Zone by Monday of the following week. Workshop assignments more than one week overdue receive no credit.

2. Weekly Homework Assignments: I will post your weekly homework assignments on my instructor webpage by Friday before class. If you need a hard copy, please let me know. You must be present in order to earn credit for homework. If you are absent, you can still earn credit on the homework by seeing me during my office hours and having your homework checked. Homework more than one week past due receives no credit.

3. Writing assignments are completed in the computer classroom. If you are absent on the day we are in the computer classroom, it is your responsibility to meet with me outside of class to make up the writing assignment. Writing assignments that are not made up within one week of the original due date cannot be made up.

4. Tests help you learn the skills taught in this class. Tests and exams cannot be made up and result in a 0 unless you arrange in advance an extension or verify an emergency or crisis. Writing assignments completed as part of a test cannot be revised to raise your grade.

5. Use the College Skills Zone. Open Monday through Friday from 8 am to 5 pm, the CSZ is an excellent place to get help with assignments, prepare for tests, and learn about student success strategies.

6. When in doubt, seek me out. Please see me when you have questions or concerns or just want another explanation. You are not bothering me when you come to my office hour – that's why I am here.

Course Content

The pace of the course will vary depending upon the needs of this particular class. The topics below will be interwoven:

Student-Success Strategies	Editing strategies
Punctuation for sentence elements	Sentence elements (clauses, phrases)
Paragraph focus/main idea	Sentence Combining
Paragraph support/development	Capitalization
Sentence variety	Fragments

Grading Policy

• Homework and In-Class Activities (Exercises/Practice Quizzes)	15%
• Workshops (Held once a week in the College Skills Zone: WH 225)	15%
• Quizzes (Skill or Concept Mastery Quizzes)	15%
• Writing Assignments and Journals (in the computer classroom)	20%
• Two Tests (Taken in week five and week eight)	20%
• Final Exam (A two-hour, timed writing assignment)	15%

Extra Credit Policy: I do not give extra credit assignments because I already give many opportunities for students to improve their grade and demonstrate mastery of our course outcomes. For example, you will have opportunities to revise homework and papers for the chance to raise your grade, and if you are not satisfied with your quiz grades, I am willing to let you take another quiz on the same topic for the chance to improve your grade. If you are worried about your grade, be sure to see me to explore ways to improve it.

Course grades will be determined as follows:

90% - 100% = A, 80% - 89 % = B, 70% - 79% = C, 60% - 69% = D, 0% - 59% = F

INC - Incomplete: if a personal crisis or illness occurs. Student must have completed 75% of course work with a passing average.

P/NP - Students who choose a pass/no pass (P/PN) option instead of a letter grade will need to notify the registration office by the end of seventh week. A pass will be awarded for A, B, or C work.

W – A student officially withdraws by the end of week seven.

Accommodations: LBCC is committed to inclusiveness and equal access to higher education. If you have approved accommodations through the Center for Accessibility Resources (CFAR) and would like to use your accommodations in the class, please talk to your instructor as soon as possible to discuss your needs. If you believe you may need accommodations but are not yet registered with CFAR, please visit the CFAR Website for steps on how to apply for services or call 51-917-789.

LBCC Board of Education Statement on Diversity: We believe that the LBCC community is enriched by diversity. Everyone has the right to think, learn, and work in an environment of respect, tolerance, and goodwill. We actively support this right regardless of race, creed, color, sexual orientation, or any countless ways in which we are diverse.
