

THE COMMUNICATOR

THURSDAY, MARCH 14, '74

An emergency meeting is scheduled following the all staff meeting on Monday, March 25th -

ALL STAFF MEETING is scheduled at 3:30 p.m. in the large Forum.

SOMETHING NEW . . .

will get a demonstration on campus tonight in Community Education. Dee has arranged a telephone conference with a special amplification so the speaker will talk to an assembly of community ed instructors.

This is part of an in-service program for community ed instructors - but Dee extends an invitation to anyone who would like to hear. The time for this portion of the meeting is about 8:15 - location - F 113.

RE PHONE MEMO . . .

The purple memo regarding telephone campaigning does not have a place for your name written in - so please do not forget to write your name on it - and please return before spring vacation if you are leaving. We have one offering Corvallis help with no name - written in pencil.

ANNIE TAKES HOLD . . .

Have you noticed that Annie in Humanities runs a good tight ship? She is able to take care of and keep track of her people. We told her this a.m. that Dick West was out sleeping in his car and she cut him right off at the coffee pot!

I am requesting her to take Kirk for a week's training. There's a man who is so law abiding he even fastens the little strap to keep his umbrella closed - always - but, he always tells Jocelyn and me where he's been - not where he's going.

Can you do anything, Annie?

THEN THERE'S JON CARNAHAN . . .

who, the story goes & I can't promise credibility on this, told the last Chamber of Commerce he spoke to that they need not worry about Streaking cause it's just a passin fan y.

TRYOUTS FOR PLAY . . .

"A Funny Thing Happened On the Way to the Forum" try-outs at Regina Frager Theatre, Sun., Mon., Tue., -17,18,19 at 7:00 p.m. This play is terrific to work in according to every theatre performer around here - cast of 22, all ages, sizes, a few singing parts, 2 piano players and 12 cameo parts.

NEW SALAD FOR STREAKERS . . .

concocted by Doug Hurst in Food Services - lotsa greens - no dressing.

TELEPHONE CORRECTION . . . Mike Morgan has been answering for Mel Gilson whose calls are considerable so write in these numbers -
Mel's - 234 Mike's - 255

BOARD MEETING TONIGHT - includes reports on Instruction & Faculty, Students' Policy Amendment, meeting plans for Intercity Governments for Mass Transit, March 26 election for levy and board member replacements.

INTRODUCING KATIE CLEVELAND . . . (love that name!)

who is sharing room and space with Mary Davis for the time being, and is a Child Development Specialist . Katie is funded through a special grant and will work on early childhood curriculum.

A DISPLAY . . .

has been put up in the LRC of Joan White's latest photos - the large case straight ahead as you enter the library.

A GRAND AFFAIR . . .

was held by our Nursing department on campus Monday that brought 60 members of the Albany Hospital out to visit - the first visit on campus by many of them.

The "tea" was a welcoming event for the new director of the nursing division of the hospital, and the nursing students put on a gourmet's delight in the way of "finger food." Male nursing student Jim Beecroft brought hard boiled quails eggs - very small, more delicious than ordinary hen eggs. Mr. Purdom, the hospital administrator found time to get out. New Nursing Director is Ann Russell.

TO MEDITATE ON RAIN . . .

is the title of Dick West's new composition. This is not joking - it is a piece with accent on sound - a close your eyes and listen piece. He has it arranged for the concert choir and they will be performing it.

INTRODUCING VERY SPECIAL JEAN ANDERSON . . .

our new Democrat Herald reporter . Jean will be known to some of you already as a former writer for the Gazette Times. She spent the summer writing at Legislature in Salem and has been part time on the D.H. staff at times. We are happy to see Jean around campus and have her working with us.

A VERY SPECIAL SPRING VACATION
IF YOU ARE TAKING ONE - AND RETURN TO US SAFELY.
