GOVERNOR TO VISIT ALBANY SATURDAY!

Dr. Adams, (chm. of the Albany Chamber's Clean-Up Day), has announced that Governor Tom McCall will not only be in the parade that day, but will be touring LBCC's Environmental Lab. Saturday morning. Students are involved (they will be cleaning up the Hwy. 99E shoulders between Albany and the campus, then entering their garbage in the parade!!) and, you can be involved, too! Volunteers for assisting with parade "line-up" and judging are needed. Check with Dr. Adams.

SEVERAL CITIZENS have filed for the two positions on the LBCC Board of Education. Zone 2: (Albany), Pat Reilly & Russ Tripp. Zone 4: (Lebanon), Bud Daily, Dr. Frank Girod, and Dr. Kenneth Haevernick. The election will be held May 3.

STUDENTS have been busy! Lawn signs and window signs have gone up all over the two-county areas. We still need telephone volunteers, however. (You can call from home!) Check with Margaret Phelan.

If you're not going to be in town on April 13, don't forget to get an absentee ballot from Nadine Jordon.

Cookies and refreshments can be donated for the election evening gathering scheduled for the college center. Check with student government people...and do plan to come! The LRC will be setting up a remote TV camera to keep us up on the latest returns. It should be a victory celebration!

HAPPY 30th, BOB MILLER! Today's the day for both Bob and Carl Love. Sorry to have missed Jim Barne's Sunday birthday....April 16th is Dr. Needham's day....then Janet Quakenbush celebrates on April 17th, Yvonne Lee lights her candles on April 19th, and Clarice Scheffler waits until April, 23.

TRIVIA: The grapevine reports that Mr. Draper made a hasty exit from checking a ballet class recently. With any luck, Ed, you may be able to catch them in the midst of a quick change again someday!

CONGRATULATIONS, ROADRUNNERS! Friday Dick McClain's crew topped the Oregon J-V's 4-1 and 6-1. Then came back to win another on Saturday from the OSU J-V's, 5-4. (Shall we mention the loss to Lower Columbia Jr. College, 7-1?)
