BUMPER STICKERS HAVE ARRIVED! "Sold On LBCC" bumper stickers are available either through the Student Government office, at Carol's desk, or in the registration area. They are a finer quality than before and much more removable when the campaign is over. Only 1000 were ordered, so general public distribution is not possible. (However, there will be buttons for all!!)

Brochures will also be available this afternoon, but buttons have a week to go before they make the scene!

"MEDIA" LUNCHEON TOMORROW!

Planned especially to acquaint newspaper, radio and television with the facts about the election, this no-host luncheon is open to any of you who would like to attend. It will be held at the Country Kitchen Restaurant, 12 noon, in Corvallis, and reservations may be made through Margaret Phelan. "Here Are The Answers", a slide production featuring LBCC students, will be shown.

Tuesday evening in Brownsville, Dr. Needham will show the slides & address the Linn County Chamber.
Thursday evening, LBCC Continuing Education instructors will meet in the Board Room & have the opportunity to get acquainted with Dr. Needham, "what's up" in continuing ed.,and the campaign.

RESERVATIONS for this "unique" production are being made now. It is a question and answer, 12 minute, sound-on-sound synchronized "event" voiced mainly by students with comments from Dr. Needham and the campaign general chairman, Larry Needham. It's even entertaining! If you are a member of a group, or know of a PTA, church organization, club or other gathering that would enjoy seeing the facts about LBCC presented plainly ... including budget information we'd appreciate your help! These reservations are also made through Marg P. Brochures including the same questions and answers "go with".

WEDNESDAY NOON, classified staff members participating in the organization of a letters to the editors campaign will have lunch at Merle's Chuck Wagon at 12 noon. Packets will be ready for you then. Please feel free to attend, even if you're not a chairman or even a classified staff member! (Some of the nicest people we know are neither!)

LAWN SIGNS will not be posted until about April 5, but will be available before then here at the college.

PRESIDENT, DEANS, DIRECTORS meet tomorrow morning, 9:30.

OREGON STATE APPRENTICESHIP COUNCIL will be meeting in the board room Friday, March 19th, from 9:30 until 1 p.m.

SPEAKERS BUREAU BROCHURES WILL BE READY SOON.....

BOB TALBOTT is compiling a list of "bridge-playing" faculty. So far, the report is that he has 5 1/2 couples. (The Suddreths, Brooks, wrights, barnes, talbotts and Charlie Green.) Want to be included? Contact Talbott.

TELEPHONE CAMPAIGN NEEDS VOLUNTEERS DESPERATELY!

April 13, (election day), we will be telephone day. We will be setting the "where and who" very shortly....even if you can only contribute an hour on the phone, it will be one of the most valuable contributions you can make to the campaign effort. Please sign up with ...guess who.. Margaret Phelan, !

THOSE DAILY MEMOSmight be included into the Communicator. If it needs to be published oftener than weekly, we'll try to accomodate you! The problem is.....most people still are not writing info down and delivering to this editor in time to be published.....and very often lack the time or manpower to check individually with you all makes a really complete edition nearly impossible. Help!

CAMPUS CALENDAR DEADLINE for next term is Wednesday. This Wednesday....12 noon!
Check with Bob Miller.

FREE COFFEE DURING FINALS WEEK.....for students and faculty in student center. (Students say thanks!!)

TONIGHT'S THE NIGHT!! Adult Education class schedules will be printed in the Corvallis Gazette Times and in the Albany Democrat Herald. Also, complete Continuing Education (Adult Ed & Evening College) class schedules are now available in that department.

CONGRATULATIONS to the Nursing Division on their Candle Lighting ceremony!! (Check Sat.'s G.T.)

GENERAL FACULTY MEETING Thursday at 1 p.m. in C4. It's very important that you all attend.

"THE LRC STORY" will be the topic of Joe Leger's talk at the Oregon Health Occupations Association Conference in Eugene April 16. (Sock it to 'em, Joe!)

Also from the LRC, "all books should be returned by Wednesday, March 17th. Otherwise...you may have trouble getting your report card." If you don't have a report card coming...return your books by then, anyway.

NEW AS-LBCC OFFICERS....read your new copy of The Commuter!!

HAPPY BIRTHDAY TO YOU!!
