

Some General Discussion Questions related to/guided by “The Big Question” and The Clues”

1. Completion as a Mission – What does this mean for/to us, and what does it look like?
2. What “Clues” for our work might the following quotes and ideas from our reading materials provide us? What do they mean? Do you agree/disagree?
 - a. “For America to stay competitive – academically, economically, and technologically – we need to rethink our understanding of intelligence, reevaluate our educational system, and reinvigorate our commitment to learning.” (Disrupting Class)
 - b. “Our future must be defined by the needs and interests of those we serve, and not by the models or systems or structures we currently use to serve them.” (If it ain’t Broke, Break It!)
 - c. “We willfully chose not to see those things that challenge our current way of thinking, of doing, of being.” (Willful Blindness)
 - d. “The best way to lose a job is to do it...” (Linchpin)