

THINGS & Stuff

November 17, 1969

Editor, Peggy Toftdahl

PARKING BEUES MAKES THE NEWS

It will be just a bit further to walk to your office from the parking lot...according to Vern Farnell. The City Council has asked LBCC staff members with parking permits to use the north end of the parking lot. (We've been using a bit too much of prime parking space!) Look at it this way - now it will be closer to cross under the bridge and avoid the hazards of street light crossing.

WE MISS YOU, RAY! (and HAPPY BIRTHDAY!)

Mr. Borrall is still recovering from his bout with an automobile on that very corner. He's been hospitalized, and in traction....and we sincerely hope he doesn't have to spend his birthday that way. Today is his "B-Day"! Happy November 17th.

Other birthdays this week include Galen Nielsen, November 18th; Carol Burres, November 21st; and Keith Pond, November 20th.

STUDENTS MAY ATTEND PLAY FREE

LBCC Student Body cards will admit individuals to "The Impossible Years" opening Friday at the Regina Frager Theatre, 8:15 p.m. Reserved seat tickets are available for $1.50 for staff & faculty at French's Jewelers, or call 928.7463 for reservations.

(Editor's note: Don't miss it! After a picture-taking session during a dress rehearsal, and a couple re-runs of the pizza-smashing scene and "unveiling", even the camera-man was laughing.)

THANKSGIVING HOLIDAY APPROACHES

Thursday, November 27, and Friday, November 28, are "no school" days at LBCC. Relax and enjoy your turkey.....and the left-overs the next day!

GET YOUR TICKETS FROM DIXIE

It's time to plan to attend our Christmas Party! Sponsored by the LBCC Dames, this gala event's scheduled for December 12 at the T & R. Dinner....Old Fashioned Dinner Steak.....Tickets....$3.30 each. Cocktail hour starts at 6:30 with dinner at 7:30.

SUCCESS STORY FOR CLASSIFIED ADVERTISING

Just ask Bill Maier where he found his bed springs!

And, Doris still has a pool table for sale...(they even reduced the price!)

FIRST ANNUAL PUBLIC AFFAIRS BANQUET DECEMBER 4

Plan to attend! Mr. Jordan just happens to have a few tickets left to LBCC's big banquet highlighting "Education's, Industry's, Government's, and the Public's Responsibility in Environmental Control."

CONVOCATION THURSDAY

Dr. Robert Dyer, Consulting Psychologist, will speak on "Inter-Personal Relations and the Student" in the LBCC College Center at 11:00 a.m. on Thursday, November 20. Faculty.....Don Fehr, Convocation Chairman, is asking you to remind your students of the opportunity to hear Dr. Dyer.

CAR RALLY - NOVEMBER 22 - (And Dance too!)

The College Center will be the scene....9:00 a.m. the time, for an Associated Student's Car Rally. According to Bob Miller, trophies will be awarded....and a charge of $1.00 will include a free lunch!

At 8:00 p.m. that evening there will be a JC Dance in the Roundhouse.

ADVISORY MEETINGS Ag, tonight!

Ed Draper will be meeting with the Agriculture Services Technology Advisory Committee this evening.....and he indicates some new Ag programs are "in the mill".

Tomorrow evening, November 18, the Automotive Advisory Committee meets and the Machine Tool Technology Committee meets November 20.

BOND ELECTION, FEBRUARY 25

By now you've read your local newspapers and realized that there will indeed be a Bond Election to "Campus LBCC" on February 25! At the Board of Education meeting on December 11, a final decision on the site should be made following the soil and utilities studies now underway by CH2M, comparing sites "15" and "2".

PLEASE INVITE ME

If your class is participating in a special project, conducting a special event, or just doing the usual unusually well, let me know! Pictures are always possible, and we need slides as well as black and white prints for our scrapbooks as well as publicity. My extension is 55, and I'll make every effort to attend!

NOTE FROM MR. JORDAN - Mr. & Mrs. R.A. Friberg informs him that Ron Grable of Nasuli Malaybalay, Bukednon, Philippines has inquired about LBCC's mechanical courses, and may soon be a student. Word sure gets around!

HAPPY BIRTHDAY TO US!

As previously mentioned, the week of December 1 will be special at LBCC. It's our THIRD Birthday! And, Registration for Winter Term gets under way. If you know of events that could be included in our "Calendar" during that week, please let me know now. (It'll make the news!)