OFFICE HOURS: Appointment times available on Mon. and Wed. 11:30-5:00pm

CATALOG DESCRIPTION:

Zumba Fitness promotes improved cardio respiratory conditioning, muscle endurance, balance, and/or body composition through structured group exercises featuring rhythmic dance and interval training sessions.

COURSE LEARNING OUTCOMES:

Upon completion of the course, with a "C" or better, students should be able to:

1. recognize and describe the importance of consistent and effective participation
2. demonstrate the ability to write and/or follow an appropriate workout routine for their fitness level and modify that routine periodically.
3. demonstrate proper technique, based on the student's personal ability for Zumba.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS:

1. Sign in each day
  - Students must participate to receive full credit for the day.
  - Students arriving late/needing to leave early must check in with the instructor in order to receive partial or full credit for the class that day, depending on amount of time missed.
2. All individuals must sign a Risk and Release Form at the beginning of the term.
3. Appropriate attire (including shoes) is MANDATORY in order to attend class. Students will be asked to leave and will receive no credit for the day if proper exercise clothing/footwear is not worn. In addition, towels and water bottles are highly recommended.
4. Fitness evaluations (optional) will be conducted during class at the beginning and the end of the term in an effort to assess progress towards fitness related goals.
5. Active Participation in the class is required. Credit will not be given for those not actively participating. If you are ill, you will not be allowed to sit and watch class for credit. Grading is almost entirely dependent on attendance and participation.
6. Each student is required to submit two goals (fitness or otherwise) they hope to achieve through this class. This paper will be due on or before the second Friday of class. In addition, each student will submit the progress they made on each of the goals at the end of the term. It will be due on the Friday before finals week. Each paper is worth 2.5 points.
7. Each student will complete a handout in class or write a brief paper (no more than 1-2 pages) on what constitutes an effective Zumba workout including the duration, intensity, and frequency of workouts. The handout/paper is to be submitted no later than the last Friday of the term. (An alternate assignment will be given to students who have taken the Zumba class from this instructor in the past.)
8. Students will participate in a group project to be described in the second week of class.
9. If you stop attending classes for any reason other than medical (with a note), I will not drop the class for you and you will receive an F or NP. Check with the registrar for drop dates.

WARNING OF RISKS

Participation in any Physical Fitness, Exercise or Weight Training class may involve injury of some type to either yourself or a fellow student. Such injury can include direct physical and possible crippling injury to one's body and the possibility of emotional injury experienced as a result of witnessing or actually accidentally inflicting injury to another. The severity of such injury can range from a minor injury to complete paralysis, or even death. Such injury can impair one's general physical and mental health and hinder one's future ability to earn a living and generally to enjoy life.

Injuries in a Physical Fitness, Exercise or Weight Training class can occur and you are encouraged to have a complete physical examination prior to attending class if you have any health problems or considerations due to injury, illness or age or a history of heart disease or high blood pressure, respiratory problems, skeletal or muscular injuries or ailments or are 30 lbs or more over your recommended weight based on a standard weight chart. Risks that may be encountered may include cardiac or respiratory distress; bone or joint injuries; back or muscle injury; slipping, tripping or falling; lifting, twisting, straining, spraining or breaking an appendage; or other trauma or injury. Injuries may result from the correct or incorrect performance of techniques or equipment used in class, from mis-fitted or worn equipment, from the administration of first aid, from failing to follow training, safety or other rules. This list is non-exhaustive and is provided by way of illustration of risks or injuries that may be incurred.

The purpose of this WARNING is to bring your attention to the existence of potential dangers associated with participation in this class and to aid you in making a voluntary and informed decision as to whether you (or your child or ward) should participate in this class or activity. As a student or a parent/guardian of a student, it is your responsibility to learn about and/or to inquire of teachers, physicians, attorneys or other knowledgeable persons about any concerns that you might have at any time regarding student safety and the safety of this class or club activity. You may seek legal counsel before signing this form. If you decide to participate, by your signature you hereby agree to indemnify and hold harmless Linn-Benton Community College including its officers, employees and agents against any/all claims, damages, demands, liabilities and costs incurred including attorney's fees, which might be made by the undersigned or any third party as a result of damage, injury or death suffered. This agreement shall be binding upon the heirs, successors and assigns of the undersigned. I understand and acknowledge that signing this agreement severely limits my legal rights, and as such, I have been encouraged above to seek legal counsel before signing.

Your Personal Responsibility and Risk

Few risks are associated with Cardio Core Conditioning, if performed safely but the steps listed here are important! Check with your doctor before joining any new exercise program.

Sign Medical Release Form prior to class participation. If you have neck, back or spinal issues, pain, dizziness, loss of breath, difficulty breathing, are pregnant, or have other limitations, prior to, during, or after class, promptly discuss these with your instructor. Set a time to visit with Instructor for specific modifications. It is your responsibility to connect directly with me to discuss your concerns and specific modifications.

Attendance

Class attendance and timeliness are mandatory. Arrive on time, sign in at the beginning of each class period and attentively participate until class is dismissed to receive full credit. If you do not sign in each class period, you will be considered absent. If extenuating circumstances arise, please *contact me promptly. *see page 1 Have fun!
