WHAT'S UP?

A special edition! Just to pass along the "order of the day".

April 13th is nearing...and we'd like everyone to know what's going on and what needs yet to happen. (!)

1. SLIDE PRODUCTION - It's been really getting around, thanks to administrators, students and other personnel. Buttons & brochures "go with" and from all reports, has been well received. Steve Sprenger & Harvey Scott have personally attended most of these events. (more can be scheduled)
2. TOMORROW LIVE TV CAMERAS WILL BE RECORDING YOU! At 10 a.m. tomorrow, Warren Lamb of the KVAL news team will be on campus shooting a special news cast about LBCC's Year-Around College.

We will be popping into classrooms...shooting all kinds of campus shots. Please bear with us if we interrupt, but remember it's for a good cause!
3. JEAN ANDERSON WILL BE TOURING TOMORROW AFTERNOON . Jean is with the Corvallis Gazette Times and will be doing a story about students & offerings. She will definitely show up at the Environmental Tech. lab and welding shop .
4. BUTTON, BUTTON... Your dimes will be used for last minute advertising. We can count on a blast election eve from the protectors of taxpayers, and we'd like to be able to counter. If you haven't as yet had the opportunity of donating a dime for a button, don't hesitate!!
5. LAWN SIGNS will be available here on campus any minute. But, they are not to go up until after April 5. (That's the day of the I.E.D. election.) Window posters will appear then also. Feel free to help yourself to a lawn sign...but be sure to save it for us...and, take it down the day after the election!
6. PHONE CAMPAIGN - Marg Phelan can still use volunteers, and, it will be possible to phone from home if wives are interested. Sign up with Marg.
7. ELECTION GATHERING April 13 in College Center - Students, staff and citizen committee members are cordially invited to join the gang to watch return tallies the evening of the election. (It will become, hopefully, a victory celebration!!)
8. BUMPER STICKERS are still available, but in a very limited quantity through the student government office.

9. ALUMNI are being contacted through the efforts of Dean Archibald. Approximately 9,000 alums will receive a letter and a special LBCC info sheet sometime next week.
10. LETTERS TO THE EDITORS will be invaluable. If you have an idea about one or know someone who would write one, don't hesitate to contact one of our staff area chairmen: Annie Farrington, Carol Burres, Barbara Dixon, Fran Paist ...or go ahead on it yourself! (We like surprises)

II. THANK YOU!

A note from the Dames:

The Altrusa Club of Albany has been very generous in their donations of used clothing to needy LBCC students - and their stock has been depleted.

The Dames are asking for donations of clothing (must be in good, wearable condition) to help replenish their supply. Please bring all items to Marg Phelan, or to the Dames next meeting scheduled for Wednesday, April 7, at Mira Suddreth's home, 512 E. 27th in Albany.

Women's & children's items are in greatest demand.

CAPPING CEREMONY TOMORROW!

Don't miss the opportunity to see LBCC's first Dental Assistant class formally "capped" at 2 p.m. at 1115 West 28th, Albany.....that's the First United Methodist Church Fellowship Hall.

PUBLIC RELATIONS WORKSHOPS MONDAY MORNING

All secretaries and clerks will be urged to attend one of these workshops scheduled for 9 a.m. and 10 a.m. Monday morning.

The sessions are planned as a means of developing a more efficient communications system "in house". If you have questions about any area - (outside & inside printing requests, The Communicator, press releases, coverage of special events, photographs, priorities,) - bring them with you for discussion.
